Women's Day Celebration

08/03/2024

On 8th March 2024 The Symbiosis School of Planning Architecture and Design celebrated International Women's Day with great enthusiasm and fervor. The occasion aimed to honor and appreciate the invaluable contributions of women within our institute, particularly focusing on female faculty members and support staff.

The celebration commenced with a variety of engaging activities designed to break the monotony of routine work and provide a refreshing break for the female faculty members. These activities included:

1. Lunch Gathering: A special lunch was organized for all the faculty members as a token of appreciation for the hard work and dedication of female staff. The lunch provided an opportunity for camaraderie and bonding among colleagues in a relaxed setting.
2. Games and Recreational Activities: Various games and recreational activities were arranged to add a fun element to the celebration. These activities not only served as a source of entertainment but also fostered team spirit and collaboration among the participants.
3. Felicitation of Cleaning Staff: In recognition of the indispensable role played by the women who work tirelessly to maintain cleanliness and hygiene within our institute, a special felicitation ceremony by the Director of SSPAD Dr. Nandini Kulkarni was held to honour the cleaning staff. They were acknowledged for their dedication, diligence, and contribution to creating a conducive environment for learning and working.

The Women's Day celebration at SSPAD was a resounding success, thanks to the collective efforts of the organizing committee, participants, and attendees. It served as a meaningful opportunity to honour and celebrate the achievements of women within our institute, while also recognizing the importance of acknowledging the invaluable contributions of all women, regardless of their roles or positions. The event not only provided a welcome break from the routine but also reinforced the spirit of inclusivity, appreciation, and respect within our academic community.
